FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pittsfield, MA, August 25, 2005 – Media Production Services announced today that it has been chosen by College Sports Television to package the network's 2005 soccer coverage.

"We're looking forward to building on the success we had last season," said Andrew Schneider, MPS's President. "Both the schedule and coverage have been expanded from last year. We're covering more conference championships and using more equipment to give the viewer the best experience we can," Schneider said.

CSTV plans to open up its women's coverage with the Inn at St. Mary's Notre Dame Classic, featuring Connecticut, Maryland, and Florida, in addition to National Champion Notre Dame. Men's coverage begins with Notre Dame at fifth-ranked St. John's. Rivalries on tap include Army-Navy, Yale-Princeton, and Santa Clara-Portland, along with Big East championship action, the Big Ten, Conference USA, and Mountain West men's and women's championships. The season is capped off with NCAA Tournament quarterfinal action.

Media Production Services, LLC is a full service production company specializing in production and event management, and consulting. MPS' client list includes CSTV, ESPN, NBC Sports, USA Broadcasting, Discovery Networks, NBA Entertainment, New Line Television, TWI, and the USTA. MPS is located in Pittsfield, Massachusetts.
